DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Jun (US 5,652,169).

Jun teaches an antifuse structure in an integrated circuit, comprising (Fig.4):

first (30), second (33) and third (40) conductive members; and means (36) for moving at least a portion of the second conductive member as a solid unit relative the first and third conductive members. See also Col.2, lines 21-29.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 34-35 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Jun (US 5,652,169).

Re claim 34, Jun teaches an antifuse structure in an integrated circuit, comprising (Fig.9H):

A chamber having a bottom and a top and one or more interior walls extending between the top and bottom; a conductive layer within the chamber and comprising aluminum (Col.7, line 17-20); and first and second conductive members each overhanging the top of the chamber and contacting the conductive layer within the chamber. Jun does not expressly teach first and second conductive members overhanging the top of the chamber by at least 250 Å. It is an obvious matter of routine experimentation to find the optimal distance ranges. Generally, difference in distance will not support the patentability of subject matter encompassed by the prior art unless there is evidence indicating such thickness is critical.

It would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the invention was made to select the distance of the conductive members, since it has been held that where the general conditions of a claim are disclosed in the prior art, discovering the optimum or workable ranges involves only routine skill in the art. In re Aller, 105 USPQ 233.

Re claim 35, Jun teaches the first and second conductive members are fused to the conductive layer.

Double Patenting

5. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-5, 32-33, 36 & 95 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-5, 31-32 & 35 of U.S. Patent No. 6,288,437.

Re claims 1-5, claims 1-5 of US Pat. 6,288,437 teach the claims 1-5 of instant application.

Re claims 32-33, claims 31-32 of US Pat. 6,288,437 teach the claims 32-33 of instant application.

Re claims 36 & 95, claim 35 of US Pat. 6,288,437 teach the claim 36 of instant application.

Claims 7-19, 28, 37-47, 61, 63-64, 66-69, & 71 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over U.S. Patent No. 6,288,437. See office action mailed on April 15, 2003.
